🏛️ Institutional Policies

Course Subject to Change

The syllabus is a statement of intent and schedule of topics, activities, assessments, and requirements that serves as a guideline for students. The syllabus is an overall road map to ensure students will achieve both the course learning objectives and the program-level learning objectives as well as develop lifelong learning skills.

The scheduled educational activities are subject to change with reasonable advance notice to students by either the instructor or academic administration. The grading and attendance policies are not subject to change once posted.

Students wishing to appeal changes to a course syllabus must first do so in writing to their instructor. If a successful resolution is not achieved after submitting the written appeal, the student has the option to file a written appeal to the appropriate Associate Dean of Curriculum and Instruction or Dean of Curriculum and Instruction. If the second level appeal does not result in a resolution, the student can submit a final appeal to the Vice President of Academic Affairs. The review and final decision of the Vice President of Academic Affairs is final and not subject to appeal.

Attendance

Administrative Withdraw for Non-Attendance

Students are expected to attend all sessions of courses for which they are enrolled. Absences do not excuse the student from meeting course requirements. Each instructor will evaluate the student's progress to determine how to handle outstanding assignments and assessments. Students who have a record of zero attendance for fourteen (14) calendar days will be administratively withdrawn from the course(s) the absence is occurring, resulting in a grade of "W" for the course. Students who receive financial aid may have their financial aid status affected. Students with special needs as addressed by the Americans with Disabilities Act that need course materials in alternative formats should notify instructor immediately. Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate those special needs.

Freedom of Speech

Southeast Technical College students are both citizens and members of the Southeast Tech community. Students should enjoy the same freedom of speech, peaceful assembly, and right to petition that other citizens enjoy and should abide by the obligations and expectations as members of the Southeast Tech community.

Southeast Tech strives to create an environment in which diverse opinions can be expressed and heard. Students have the right to peacefully express their views and opinions, regardless of whether others may disagree, but not in such a way as to interfere with the rights of others or the operation of the college. Views expressed should not violate any of Southeast Tech policies or core values.

Netiquette Guidelines

Netiquette should be used in all electronic communications. Please review this "Top Ten" list for successfully communicating with your instructors and classmates.

Respect Goes a Long Way!

Treat instructors, classmates and all others in a professional and respectful manner in all communications. A good rule of thumb is to only post what you would be willing to say to your reader's face.

Say What?

Use a clear, descriptive subject line when sending email messages.

Use Your Inside Voice Please

Be cautious of using ALL CAPS. This implies you are yelling at your reader.

Proofread, Proofread, Proofread

Always make an effort to use proper punctuation, spelling and grammar.

Know Your Audience

Sarcasm and humor can easily be misinterpreted. Online messages are lacking the non-verbal communication cues that face-to-face conversations allow.

Attempt to Find Your Own Answer

If you are stuck on an assignment, it is easy to reach out and ask for clarification. Part of the learning process is to try to problem-solve on your own first. If you are still confused, we are here to help!

Think Before you Type

Never type when you are angry or frustrated. Please consider having a neutral third party read your message prior to sending.

Agree to Disagree

Remember you may not always have the same viewpoint as others. It is fine to disagree as long as you are respectful. There can be disagreement without disrespect.

Shorter is Better

Keep paragraphs and messages short and to the point.

Patience is Key

Allow for response time. It is easy to forget that there are people on the other side of the online communication. An immediate response is not always feasible. Please plan accordingly.
